JOURNEY THROUGH THE KIMBERLEY

KUNUNURRA, FITZROY CROSSING AND GIBB RIVER ROAD

Ruggedly picturesque and sparsely populated, the Kimberley is home to one of the oldest living cultures on earth. Covering an area of over 400,000 square km, the Aboriginal culture comprises a vast range of language groups, each with their own unique story and heritage. The country stretching from the town of Kununurra in the east to the Fitzroy River region in the west, is characterised by pristine coastal seascapes and steep-sided mountain ranges, cut through with sandstone and limestone gorges and cave systems. This area is rich in spectacular rock art, ancient landscapes and traces of early Aboriginal lifestyles, offering visitors a range of tours and experiences that present a unique insight into the lore, traditions, and heritage of this fascinating culture.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE KIMBERLEY

BROOME, DAMPIER PENINSULA AND DERBY

Join a guided journey back through time to Broome's early days as a frontier pearling town, or a 'mudskipper' tour to explore the teeming life in the Mangroves at low tide. Stretching north from Broome, the red pindan roads on the Dampier Peninsula lead to deserted white beaches, secluded turquoise bays and crimson cliffs. This remote and stunning country, with its abundant mangroves and fertile bushland has sustained the local 'Saltwater People' for many thousands of years. These people possess a wealth of knowledge about the coastal country and culture - giant tides, exotic wildlife and breathtaking seascapes set the scene for a range of cultural experiences that can include bush tucker, mangrove and mud crabbing tours, fishing, whale watching and other ocean based activities. This region offers a perfect getaway for the adventurous traveller with a desire to explore the less travelled roads.
